

Fine Arts Services

The Fine Art of Shipping Your Collections

A Trusted Partnership

Whether you are a collector, an impresario, an auctioneer, a gallery owner, a museum curator or an artist – you should never lose sleep over freight deliveries. At Agility, we know the power and value of the arts. Like you, we understand that nothing short of spotless handling and respectful treatment is appropriate for the arts. When you place your precious works of art and priceless collections in our skilled hands, they will arrive in the exact condition as they were prior to shipment. And they will arrive swiftly. At the right place and the right time.

Agility Solutions

Visual & Fine Arts services involves total logistics movement of fragile, valuable and priceless art pieces to parks, buildings, hotels, museums, art galleries and private collectors around the world. Each piece is packed with top quality and custom-designed packing materials and handled with utmost care and respect. Agility's comprehensive service package includes:

- Project Management
- Professional Installation
- Climate-controlled Warehousing
- Museum-standard Specialized Art Packing and Crating
- "Air-ride" Transportation
- Insurance Coverage
- Temporary Import and Re-Export Clearance
- State-of-the-art Security Measures

The Agility Benefits

Service is what makes the Agility difference. You can comfortably leave all the planning and coordination of your shipment to us. We will arrange the transportation, rigging and installation of any art work in any location – indoor or outdoor. With Agility's team of well-trained, experienced and dedicated staff, you are assured of the highest level of service. Agility's operational flexibility enables us to move individual works of arts with the care as if they are our very own. For Agility, no detail is too small and no effort is too great.

The Agility Experts

Leveraging on the global network of 550 offices in over 120 countries, Agility Fairs & Events offers our customers personalized service, specialized capabilities, global coverage and local expertise ensuring the best results for all your visual and fine arts projects. Our reputation as a premier, world-class specialized visual and fine arts expert is affirmed in our official appointments for major art exhibitions around the world.