

Agility's Brokerage Service

Brokerage Service

Access to global trade opportunities requires businesses to negotiate complex trade agreements and to maintain strict compliance to a large number of international regulations. With these challenges, it's critical to have a knowledgeable partner to help you navigating through international business.

Agility's extensive experience and comprehensive industry knowledge enables us to provide a state of the art customs brokerage service:

On behalf of importers and exporters, our experts process shipments through customs and ensure compliance with all regulations. The Agility Customs Control Tower (ACCT) verifies that all required documentation is issued and deadlines are met to avoid any customs fines. Moreover we arrange all inspections required by governmental agencies.
