Road Freight Product

Powered by our own fleet of vehicles and carefully selected preferred hauliers, Agility's Road Freight products provide you with the right solutions for your transportation needs. Whether groupage, LTL or FTL, Agility combines straightforward, standardized road freight products with customizable options to meet lead-time and capacity needs. Our pan-European network covers all major business centers, with personal service tailored to your needs. We can also provide specialized equipment, such as refrigerated vehicles or double-stacking trailers, and your local contact will help you select most appropriate services for your requirements. With our Agility Connects platform, you have end-to-end visibility into your supply chain, giving you more transparency and control over your shipments. Our industry-leading customer portal helps the world's biggest businesses optimize complex supply chains and gives small businesses access to technology that helps them grow.
